Dear Camp Friends,

Unto thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul. O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me. – Psalm 25:1-2

One of my favorite camp songs is an echo song that recites the scripture verse above. God has made a tremendous promise in this verse; one that we can hold on to at all times.

Scripture songs are one of the great memories of camp. If you have camper age children at home now, I bet they can quote Galatians 5:22-23. While they may stumble with the reference ask them to sing the fruit of the spirit song. You will immediately get laughs about coconuts and kiwis, but you will also hear “love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control -ol -ol.”

God has placed Himself at the center of the Christian Camp experience. While at camp, around the campfire, we hear His voice being spoken through songs, through scripture reading, and through testimonies. We feel His presence in the creation around us and through the love of counselors. We are in a distraction free environment that allows us to hear “the still small voice” of God.

Thank you for your contribution this month that allows each camper to experience a “Camp Song”. Thank you for making an impact in the lives of children, teens and adult volunteers. We value your partnership. We are thankful for your gift this month.

Singing around the campfire,
