

Camper Policies

Dear Camper Parents,

Thank you for registering your child for a program at Camp Conquest. We are excited about the opportunity to serve your family this summer. Below is a list of Camper Policies that have been established by our Board. Please take time to review these items, taking special notice of our dress code. Thanks you.

Code of Conduct

In any group living situation it is necessary to establish rules and guidelines. At Camp Conquest, these guidelines have been established with the following objectives in mind:

- To provide an environment that honors God and encourages each person to have a closer relationship with Jesus Christ.
- To provide an environment that is safe, fun and challenging for all.
- To provide an environment that respects the needs of each individual

Camp Conquest desires to treat each camper with love and respect. We will work diligently with the camper and the parent to avoid discipline problems. However, sometimes problems do occur, and there are some offenses that warrant parental involvement and/ or dismissal from camp.

These offense may include:

- The use or possession of cigarettes, alcohol, drugs or pornographic materials.
- Fighting or continual verbal assaults directed at campers or staff.
- Disregard for camp policies, other campers and camp staff. Examples: profanity, direct disobedience and stealing.
- Vandalism. Financial restitution will be required.
- Possession and misuse of camera phones.
- Behavior which negatively affects the experience of other campers.

In the event that your child is involved in any of these activities, the director will contact you and you will be required to come immediately to camp and pick up your child. Your cooperation will be most appreciated. It is our goal to avoid sending children home this summer. Please help us by supporting these policies and reviewing them with your children prior to their arrival at camp.

A camper sent home from camp does not receive a refund of camp tuition, and is not permitted to return this summer. However, that camper is welcome back to camp for future programs.

Questions concerning this policy may be directed to Camp Conquest office at 717.336.2541.

General Camper Responsibilities and Regulations

1. You can do anything you want at camp as long as it does not cause a problem for anyone else on the face of this earth.
2. If you do cause a problem for someone on the face of this earth you must fix it in a way that does not create a problem for anyone else on the face of this earth.

Dress Code Policy

Camp Conquest believes the scriptures teach that a believer is to dress in such a way that attention is not drawn to the body (I Peter 3:1-4). The Word of God makes it clear that modesty must be the believer's rule of thumb. Our purpose is to keep the total camping program in line with what we believe the Scriptures teach. Therefore, the following dress code will be enforced:

- The camp reserves the right to define and enforce the meaning of the term "modest".
- Tight fitting clothes will not be worn at any time.
- Swimming attire: Girls must wear a swimsuit that covers the torso. (no cleavage, no bare mid-section, etc.) Boys are not permitted to wear bikini trunks. The camp reserves the right to restrict swimming privileges if a modest swimsuit is not worn.
- Shorts must be at least fist length.
- Suggestive clothing (i.e. see thru styles, low cut blouses, halter or spaghetti straps, or fashions with exposed mid-riffs are not acceptable).
- Clothing with objectionable slogans or pictures are not allowed.
- All clothing is to be modest in style and not draw attention to the body.
- Flip-Flops may not be worn at camp except in the shower. Shoes supporting the heel and toes must be worn at all times including to and from the pool.
- Examples of modest bathing suits for young ladies

Medications

- Campers must turn in all medications to the health center. Possession of over-the-counter medication of any kind or self administering any medication may be considered grounds for dismissal.
- Prescription Medications must be in the original container.

Cell Phones

- No camper will have a cell phone at camp. If a cell phone should be found in a camper's possession, it will be given to the camp director until the camper leaves camp. Cell phones will be returned upon dismissal to campers' parents.

Cabin Life

- Campers need to work together to be responsible cabin members with each camper contributing to the group living experience.
- Keep personal belongings neat and tidy.
- Use clotheslines for drying towels, swimsuits and clothes.
- In the morning, stay in the living area until a staff member gives you permission to leave.
- Shower quickly and at the appropriate time.
- Be on time for meals.
- Participate in the serving and clean-up procedures in the dining hall.
- Share jobs during cabin clean-up time including cleaning floors, emptying trash, picking up litter, and doing the assigned task.

Safety

- We all need to work together to ensure the health and safety of everyone at camp by observing the established health and safety procedures.
- For your own safety, do not run when traveling across camp.
- Only go into the woods with a group that includes a staff member. Never go into the woods alone.
- Be careful of the electric fence around the corral because it may be on and you would get shocked.
- DO NOT touch any wild animal. Stray cats, chipmunks, squirrels, rabbits, and bats are wild and can be dangerous. Get a staff member if there might be a problem with an animal.
- A camper who becomes ill or injured should let his/her counselor know and report to the nurse. The camper should never stay alone in his/her cabin.
- Receive an orientation concerning the camp boundaries, natural hazards, fire and evacuation procedures, and lightning safety guidelines.
