September 2011

Dear Friends,

Storms. They come in many forms. Most recently Irene danced up the East Coast skirting close but missing camp. Praise the Lord that the only damage around camp was a lot of small branches and leaves that needed to be cleaned up.

But there are other storms. Some of our supporting churches are truly struggling in the midst of storms that are disrupting their congregation to a much greater degree than anything Irene could ever do. Many of our supporters are struggling with financial storms that are disrupting their personal lives.

In the midst of the storms of life, we seek to find solace in the cleft of the Rock. In the Shadow of the Almighty is the only safe place. It is God who will sustain us whether we face natural elements, financial hardships or spiritual battles.

And God's provision is given to us through the love of His people. Whether you are facing a storm yourself, or your loved ones are in the midst of a torrent – you have a choice to be the Hand of God in the life of others. And that is what you have done for us this month. Camp Conquest is very tight financially at the moment. Your gift to us is an encouragement and a help. Thank you for your financial support this month.

Thank you for being an encouragement to us. How can you be an encouragement to someone else today?

Serving with you at camp,

Michael R. Gehlert
Executive Director
