

2012 Summer Camps

at Camp Conquest

Dear Parents,

Your number one concern about summer camp is the safety and well being of your child. At Camp Conquest, we feel the same because we are parents also. Over 50% of our counselors are parents who volunteer a week at camp to provide your child with a safe, nurturing environment where they can learn new skills and enjoy new friendships. We look forward to serving you and your child at camp this summer!

Mike Gehlert
Executive Director
